Mrs. Ebbs' Assignment Sheet for the week of January 22, 2018

It's time for Young Authors! Students are encouraged to write an original story (fact or fiction) and submit it to the classroom by February 28th. I know that's sounds like a lot of time, but I recommend starting now and working on it slowly. A note went home Friday with the guidelines and information. This is something that is completed at home. I can print them and bind them at school if needed. If you have any questions about it, please contact me.

Spelling: Irregular plural nouns is the spelling unit this week. Practice changing the nouns from plural to singular to help remember how to spell them. You can practice them on Spelling City too, it's linked on the 3rd grade website.

Math: We'll get back into our regular math lessons this week. Wrapping up all of the multiplication & division facts and moving into properties. Keep practicing your facts at home, and using your strategies!!! There's a lot of fun games to practice multiplication on multiplication.com.

ELA/Reading: Olympic research is continuing, while students write their newspaper articles. Students will then pick an athlete in their sport to research.

Writing: Once the Olympic research is finished, we'll begin reading a chapter book as a class. The Lemonade War is a fun book about kids running a lemonade stand. This book will continue for a couple of weeks.

Social Studies/Science: We'll complete our habitat projects this week. Economics is up next. Along with our chapter book we'll study economics and the best way to run a business.
