Mrs. Ebbs' Assignment Sheet for the week of February 5, 2018

Parent/Teacher conferences are this week. Please let me know if you'd like to meet, so I can get you on the schedule. The book fair will also start this Friday in the mornings. It will be open during Academic Night as well. The next two weeks are going to be very busy in class. We're wrapping up all of our research reports, finishing our economic unit, and so much more. Each year the 3rd grade classes have lemonade stands on Academic Night as a fundraiser for a charity. We will be sending home information about this later this week, so check your student's folder each night. Students will put the knowledge they're learning about running a business into action that night. We are in need of empty 2-liter bottles for that night. Please send clean bottles with students to school.

Spelling: Prefixes are the spelling unit this week. Take the prefix on and off to see how the word changes. Practice sounding the words out slowly while you spell them to hear the sounds. You can practice them on Spelling City too, it's linked on the 3rd grade website.

Math: We'll start multiplying more numbers this week. Keep practicing your facts at home, and using your strategies!!! There's a lot of fun games to practice multiplication on multiplication.com.

ELA/Reading: Students are really enjoying our chapter book The Lemonade War. The audio files have been uploaded to the website if you want to hear what it's all about. We'll be putting some of what we learned into action on Academic Night.

Writing: The next two weeks will be focused on our economic unit and putting our business plan together. We'll be writing slogans for our lemonade stand.

Social Studies/Science: We're into our economic unit. We're learning all about being a good consumer, and goods and services.
